

Heart Set On You

The first time I saw you there
I couldn't help but stop and stare
My heart would know you anywhere
And follow you

Although we hadn't spoken yet
I loved you long before we met
And the dream that I could not forget
Had just come true

You were where I had to be
You were all my eyes could see
I couldn't even think
But still I knew
My heart, in its heart, always had
It's heart set on you

So tired from the race I'd run,
But now I knew, I'd finally won
Like a flower aching for the sun,
That just broke through

CHORUS

You held a mirror to my soul
Diamonds come from pressure
On an ugly piece of coal
